

Labour INT

Pilot Action in Germany:
Preparing the workplace

Aim of Labour INT (Pilot Action)

improve the labour market integration of refugees in Germany through

- strengthening the dialogue between social partners and NGOs
- developing and testing a training for workers representatives and vocational trainers
- transferring training-modules

Closely linked with DGB Federal Headquarter in Berlin

Actions

- Developing training modules as an training manual
- Testing the manual in two trainings
 - 4th-5th October 2017 in Frankfurt/ Main
 - 2018 tba
- Two focus group meetings on integration of refugees (social partners, chambers, NGO), tba

Training

- Main aspect: support of refugees in vocational trainings in the workplace
- Target groups: workers representatives, vocational trainers
- Subjects:
 - New studies on refugees in Germany – core facts and findings
 - Legal status and working/ training permits
 - Situation(s) as a refugee in Germany
 - Concrete steps how I can support
 - Typical situations (for example with refugees, with other workers)
- Methods: interactive elements, short inputs, role play, sociometrist methods, good practice, quiz, world café